

THREE IS A TIME IN EVERY MAN'S EDUCATION WHEN HE ARRIVES AT THE CONVICTION that envy is ignominy; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better, but he knows what that is which he can do, nor does he know until he has tried. Not for nothing is given to him to till. The power which resides in him is new in nature, and none which is given to him to till. The power which resides in him is full of good, no kernel of worthless grain can come to him but through his toll bestowed on that plot of ground was placed where one ray should fall, that it might testify of that particular ray. We but none. This sculpture in the memory is not without pre-established harmony. The eye notching one face, one character, one fact, makes much impression on him, and another half expresses ourselves, and are ashamed of that divine idea which each of us represents. It may be safely trusted as proportionate and of good issues, so it be faithfully imparted, but God will not have his work made manifest by cowards. A man is relieved and gay when he has put his heart into his work and done his best; but what he has said or done otherwise shall give him no peace. It is a deliverance which does not deliver. In the attempt that genius deserts him; no muse betrays; no invention, no hope. Trust thyself;

Deck. In magazine design, a subtitle is called a "deck". A deck face is a hybrid of the display and text designs—slightly more refined than text, but weighted enough to withstand setting at sizes smaller than display. Deck sizes are normally 14–24 points.

Text. Text type is the workhorse of the type family. Designed for use at sizes 9–14 points, they are less refined than display or deck faces, but perfectly suited to their task of facilitating extended reading.
